THE EXORCISM OF EMILY BLAIR

While attending to a terminally ill patient, sweet and kind nurse Emily Blair (Ellen Hollman - "Spartacus", "Into the Badlands", "NCIS", "Scorpion King") never imagines that there might be a third party involved -- one who is quite unwilling to leave this world along with its sickly host...

Soon, our formerly gracious bride-to-be is summarily possessed by a demonic force that vacates the body of the dying man -- yet the traces of change in Emily are initially quite subtle. Her fiancée William (Will Kemp - "Van Helsing", "Mindhunters", "Midnight Man") is the first to notice, along with her best friend Tara (Francia Raisa - "Secret Life of the American Teenager", "Bring It On") and her mother Linda (Golden Globe nominee Sherilyn Fenn - "Twin Peaks", "Rude Awakening", "Wild at Heart"). Now, all three are scratching their heads over Emily's shocking, bizarre, and ultimately violent behavior -- bringing in both the police and the church to help, as the suspense hits a fever pitch...

Ultimately, only the passion and fortitude of wise priest (Golden Globe nominee Colm Meaney - "Star Trek", "Con Air", "Law Abiding Citizen") and his longtime friend (Adrian Paul - "Highlander") stand in the breach between the soul of the young nurse and the forces of hell itself, as supernatural powers clash with mortal man in the excruciating and riveting Exorcism of Emily Blair.
